The ineffable danny flanigan and his band The Rain Chorus, will have a CD release show for his new CD, hope is a word, at Gerstle's on Saturday, June 4, starting at 9 p.m. It's been some time in the making, and I can testify (because I have a copy) that he's put a lot of positive energy, talent and thoughtfulness into the songs and the CD. So put it on your calendar and head on over.
